Have fun playing spies with a laser maze in the hallway!
You just need some crepe paper or ribbon and some tape! (Be careful with the tape on your walls! Sticky tac also works.)
You can create it for the kids or have them help with the process!

Tape them high, tape them low and all ways in between. You may have to do some adjusting as they actually navigate through it. You want it to have a level of difficulty but you also want it to be doable so they can feel successful at it.

Fast, super cheap and easy clean up too for HOURS of fun!!!
